

About Our Instructor

Kory Jones first learned Polynesian drumming and dance as a youth at a studio in Hollywood, California under the direction of Tani Marsh and Lisona Leiataua, and has performed at many private and public events, even appearing on a TV episode of Fantasy Island. He later studied under Rowleen Bodnar, Lincoln Kaio, and Kumu Hula April "Sissy" Kaio.

After moving to Hawaii in 1982, he continued his hula training for another 20 years under Kumu Hula Cy Bridges, and has competed in the Merrie Monarch Hula Festival and the King Kamehameha Hula and Chant Competition.

Kory was also influenced by other Kumu Hula, including William "Uncle Bill" Kaiwiulaokalani Wallace III, Keith Kalanikau Awai, and the late Inoke Kaina.

Kory worked for five years at the Polynesian Cultural Center in Laie, Hawaii as a musician, dancer, chanter, lecturer, and cultural guide.

Kory is fluent in Hawaiian, and taught adult evening language classes for five years. He has a Bachelor's Degree in Pacific Island Studies and a Master's Degree in Business Administration.
